

Annual Installation Dinner raises $7,700

The Chamber's 2nd Annual Installation Dinner raised $7,700 for the Sacramento Rainbow Chamber of Commerce Foundation, a 501c(3) corporation established in 2008. Keynote speaker for the gala event, held Sept. 22 at the Lion's Gate Hotel at McClellan Business Park, was West Sacramento Mayor Christopher Cabaldon, who also presided over the installation of the Chamber's newly elected nine-member board of directors. Tina Macuha of CW31's Good Day Sacramento served as celebrity emcee.

Taking the oath of office were Outword publisher Fred Palmer, who won a second term as president; Steven Walker, owner of computer services company Fast Break Tech Inc., elected to his second term as vice president; David Ian Allison, owner of Realty First Real Estate & Mortgage Services, elected to his second term as secretary; and members-at-large Gerald Filice of Filice Law Offices; Michael Boyd of Inside Publications; Bonnie Osborn, owner of public relations company WriteAway Communications Services; Roy Guira of The Associates Salon; and Brian Bentzen, Pampered Chef franchise owner. Jason Russell, CPA, of Marcia Fritz & Company was elected to his second term as treasurer.

The Rainbow Chamber Foundation presented two LGBT students, Audrey Fry and Mallory Lass, with $1,000 educational scholarships. Fry attends Sacramento City College, and Lass attends McGeorge School of Law.

Sponsors of the 2nd Annual Installation Dinner included Western Health Advantage, Outword Magazine, Mona Vie, and Greenberg Traurig LLP.